Corrigendum: Animal-to-Animal Variability in Neuromodulation and Circuit Function

ALBERT W. HAMOOD AND EVE MARDER

In the original version of this article, Figure 5B was inadvertently duplicated as Figure 5D. The authors apologize for this error. The correct version of Figure 5 is printed below, and Figure 5 has been replaced in the current PDF version of the article.

Figure 5. (A,B) Example lvn recordings from two intact preparations of the STNS showing highly similar pyloric rhythms. (C,D) Following decentralization, after 30 min these same two preparations show highly divergent responses to the perturbation, with dissimilar pyloric rhythms.
