After the first version of this article was published, several typographical errors were identified that were missed during the production process. We apologize for this oversight. In the current version of the article, these errors have been corrected as outlined below.

- In the sixth sentence of the abstract, the phrase “Numerous presentations dissected links to cell type–specific circuits” was corrected to “Numerous presentations dissected cell type–specific circuits.”
- In the fourth sentence after the quote in the “Cross-Species Convergence” section, the phrase “We saw how all these species interrogated at multiple levels” was corrected to “We saw all these species interrogated at multiple levels.”
- In the second sentence of the first paragraph in the “Conclusion: Toward Systems Neuroscience 2.0” section, the phrase “The impressive compendium presentations at the symposium” was corrected to “The impressive compendium of presentations at the symposium.”
- In the third sentence of the fourth paragraph in the “Conclusion: Toward Systems Neuroscience 2.0” section, the phrase “The field, possibly where cancer research was” was corrected to “The field is possibly where cancer research was.”
- In the second-to-last sentence of the fifth paragraph in the “Conclusion: Toward Systems Neuroscience 2.0” section, the phrase “in other fields of biology” was corrected to “with other fields of biology.”
- In the first sentence of the sixth paragraph in the “Conclusion: Toward Systems Neuroscience 2.0” section, the phrase “specialized cells connected to complex networks” was corrected to “specialized cells connected into complex networks.”
